

where some peas
 Whilst the birds
 al, the gardener
 d by shutting the ish them; he seiz-
 head—and imme-
 from an opposit-
 he nicks him!
 ks him!" The
 ked about him,
 got another into his head, was aa him, how he he nicks 'em."
 the voice pro-
 ho the d—l art
 "Brown's daw,
 gne thee here?—
 ny," replied the h saved the bird's berally rewarded

A X I M S. s, Wives, and either to ob-
 and, or keep yourself.
 ill whom you
 husband, lest he ou with it, or
 and if you find on to play the e two lines of
 'd, who gently
 o naughty were rning, to be rful that day;
 ould happen to offer it not to er with every pecially with aper.

 nan lately on were stopped
 Inquisition
 very interroght, in which

excepting so far as relates to the prosecuting for any injuries, and the collecting of any taxes, under said act.
 In the House of Representatives, February 15, 1799.
 This bill having had two several readings,
 passed to be enacted.
 EDWARD H. ROBBINS, Speaker.
 In Senate, February 16, 1799.
 This bill having had two several readings,
 passed to be enacted.
 SAMUEL PHILLIPS, President.
 February 19, 1799.—By the Governor approved.
 INCREASE SUMNER.
 JOHN AVERY, Secretary.

Deerfield Academy.
THE Trustees request those who purpose to send scholars to Deerfield Academy, to have them enter at the beginning of a quarter, when it can be made convenient.— The Spring Quarter commences on Wednesday, the tenth day of April next.
 Per Order,
 WM. S. WILLIAMS, Sec'ry.
 March 11, 1799.

To be Sold,
A pleasant situation for a mechanic,
in Greenfield,
Between 30 and 40
 acres of most excellent land, 5 or 6 of which are under good improvement; with a good Dwelling House thereon. Said Farm lies by the side of Fall River, within 10 rods of a grist mill and saw mill; on the roads to Montague and Gill, and partly on the roads to Northfield and Brattle-borough. The place is suitable for a Blacksmith, Clothesier, Shoemaker, and Tanner. For further particulars enquire of
 DANIEL WHIPPLE,
 On the premises.
 Greenfield, March 10, 1799.

All who are indebted to the subscriber may rest assured, that as this friendly admonition terrers them, so judgment will find them.
 OLIVER WILKINSON.
 Greenfield, 2d March, 1799.

Which cures the most proterate Itom, in four hours.
 All the above GOODS will be sold as cheap as can be purchased at any store in the country, for READY PAY ONLY.
 Colrain, March 22, 1799.

Russell & Ripley,
 Have just received, and for sale on very reasonable terms, an assortment of valuable
BOOKS;
 —AMONG WHICH ARE—
THE latest edition of Morle's Universal Geography—Ditto American Gazetteer—Millo's Elements of Appient and Modern History—Large and Small Bibles—Paley's Philosophy—Robinson's Proofs of a Conspiracy—Pike's Arithmetic—Perry's Dictionary—Bennet's Letters—Principles of Eloquence, adapted to the Pulpit and Bar, by the Abbe Maury—Alexander's English and Latin Grammar, &c. &c.
 Greenfield, March 23d, 1799.

Turnpike Roads.
THE Petitioners for the Turnpike Roads from Greenfield and Northfield, to Leominster, and all persons disposed to associate with them for the purpose of making said roads, are hereby notified that a meeting of said Petitioners and their associates, is appointed by the Act of Incorporation, to be holden at the house of OLIVER CHAPIN, Innholder in Orange, on Wednesday, the 10th day of April next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of electing Officers, and regulating the concerns of the Corporation.
 MARCH 22, 1799.
 All Persons holding subscription papers for shares in said Turnpike Roads are requested to send them to said CHAPIN, by the time appointed for said meeting.

Advertisement.
FOUND, on the 15th Dec. last, about half way between my house, and the county road, on the north side of Shelburne, a HANDSAW. The owner is desired to prove property, pay charges, and take it away.
 DOLAWAY CLARK.
 Colrain, March 10, 1799.

Greenfield
 Gazette
 p 4
 April 18, 1799