

7. Cincinnati was founded in the year 1789, on a spot surrounded by thick woods. It now contains 60,000 inhabitants, and has numerous churches, schools, and other public institutions.

8. Nearly all the Indians in the United States reside in the Western Territories. Some of them have good Houses and Farms, and have been taught to read and write by the missionaries. Others roam over the vast prairies of the Far West, and hunt the Buffalo and other Wild Beasts.

The missionaries are good men, who teach savage nations to read the Bible, worship the true God, and to live like Christians.

9. The first settlers of the Western States were exposed to many dangers; their houses were often attacked, and their wives and children murdered by the Indians: these outrages, however, now take place less frequently, and the savages are every year becoming less numerous and formidable.
